

Notice to Public

We collect personal information directly from you for reasons that are discussed in our privacy statement. Our primary focus is to understand your needs. We may be required to collect some personal information by law or by organizations that provide funding to operate this program. Other personal information that we collect is important to run our programs, to improve the quality of services we offer, and to better coordinate services on your behalf. We only collect information that we consider to be appropriate. You may request a copy of our full Privacy Notice.

9/20/17